

Scholarship Committee Announcement – 2011 Scholarship
$1,000 Scholarship Opportunity for Undergraduate Nutrition Students

The following are application guidelines for scholarship consideration:

1. Academics-Must have successfully completed all academic requirements for a minimum standing as a junior in a CADE-approved or accredited college or university with major in human nutrition or dietetics.
2. Must be a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S.A. In addition, applicant must be a resident of (as your hometown) or presently residing in (as a college student) Western Massachusetts (Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden, or Hampshire Counties)
3. American Dietetic Association member preferred (submit member #), but not required.
4. References-Submission of Letter of Recommendation from two professional people, preferably one faculty member and one employer or field work supervisor. Please list names, titles, addresses and phone numbers of persons giving references on your application. Letters of recommendation must come directly from the person writing the letter of support.
5. GPA/Transcript-Obtain and submit GPA score with a faculty advisor signature verifying your GPA(s) OR If faculty advisor signature is not provided, submit official Transcript from all colleges and universities attended. GPA must be noted on transcript.
6. A typed Personal Statement explaining your interests in the field of dietetics/nutrition, career goals, professional activities/memberships/presentations and achievements, and pertinent work/volunteer experiences. In a separate paragraph (50 words) describe your most significant accomplishment.
7. Application which includes transcripts, two letters of recommendation, and personal statement must be received by April 22, 2011. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.
8. Forward all information to: Maryann O. Hayes, MS,RD, CDE, LDN
35 Somersville Rd.
East Longmeadow, MA 01028
413 794-7194
maryann.omelia.hayes@bhs.org
9. Notification of status will be made to all applicants by May 2011.